

CELEBRATION TO WOMEN

My art is a celebration to women. It is a tribute to every woman's right to live her dreams and evolve through her inner, emotional life. I believe that women today have a very interesting point of departure. There is nothing to stand in our way anymore, we are free to do whatever we want with our lives. There is nothing to hold us back. Still I think that women today are more vulnerable than ever, we still feel the pressure of having to please our surroundings. We are taught since the dawn of time to set ourselves aside and to prioritize other people's needs. I think that being a woman today requires a sense of improvisation in order to deal with everything. Women today have a borderless situation going, but we also need to learn to be borderless ourselves. My art is my saviour, it gives me the freedom to exist.
